The first efforts of the New Orleans Street Railway companies to obey the mayor's orders to run cars were marked by an outbreak of violence. The nonunion motormen and conductors were badly beaten, car windows were smashed and the rioting was kept up for some time.

A halt, it is said, has been called in the consummation of the packers' combine. This, it is claimed, is due to the probability of a democratic Congress and consequent legislation inimical to trusts. J. Pierpont Morgan is reported to have lost the $10,000,000 privilege of underwriting the merger, and John D. Rockefeller will have the financing.

Proceedings will be instituted shortly before the State Board of Valuation to collect a franchise tax from the city of Cincinnati as the owner of the Cincinnati Southern railroad. An effort will also be made by the auditor to assess the railroads of the State for franchise taxation for the years 1893-94-95, when the republican State administration failed to make the assessment.

The depositions in the case of the L. & N. railroad against the State auditor have developed the fact that the railroads fared better this year in the matter of taxation than the individual taxpayers. The railroads paid at the old rate of 47 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent, and the taxpayers at the increased rate of 50c on the \$100. The Constitution provides that taxation must be uniform, and there is some prospect of a suit by individual taxpayers to see if the new 50c rate will stand the test of the courts.

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

W. J. BRYAN

Has $168,000 in Cash and a $40,000 House, Besides a Good Income.

William Jennings Bryan's beautiful home is located about three miles from this city. His prosperous financial condition will interest friends throughout the country and doubtless excite the envy of his political opponents everywhere.

When Mr. Bryan entered the campaign in 1896 one of his boasts was that he was a poor man; that he was without a home, without shelter, and had to work upon a weekly salary as a newspaper writer to sustain himself and wife.

It is stated now on unquestionable authority that he has something like $168,000 in the bank at Lincoln, which he made from his campaign speeches.

His home here cost $40,000. Mr. Bryan talked very freely to a friend who visited him recently about his financial condition, and seems to be happy over his great prosperity. From his conversation it was inferred that his weekly income is something like $1,500.

Mr. Bryan is intensely opposed to all of those principles espoused by Hill, Cleveland, Gorman, Lamont, and J. J. Hill, the railroad man.

Then he is bitterly resentful because he believes that these men did all they could to defeat him in the last two presidential campaigns. Mr. Bryan believes that the principles for which he fought are more enduring than any of those hitherto espoused by representatives of his party.

Mr. Bryan had a hard time to raise money to make his campaign. He feels now that he can afford to make the campaign out of his own purse, and would not hesitate to spend the money he has accumulated to elect himself or defeat any of those prominent men who he feels are responsible for his defeat in the two last national campaigns—Lincoln, Neb. cor. Philadelphia Record.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, dead I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was raised from the dead."

I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposed' of my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am tellin' de truth too." 25, 50c and $1 at Penny's Drug Store.

"We are conducting a campaign of education," said the politician. "Is that all?" asked his friend. "You don't want the office?"

"Oh, well, it's only fair that teachers should be paid."—Puck.

Our lime kilns are running full time, the quarries are busy, dirt is flying on Brush Creek railroad extension, lumber is still moving, 'possums are ready and cane mills are scattering sweetness over the land.

Mrs. Mary Prewitt, who sublet the poor house and moved to Ohio, was obliged to return and take charge to fill out her year's contract on account of the lessee having thrown up the job and moved away.

A copy of the Lexington Democrat shows Brer Walton's heart is yet beating for the oppressed. He is pushing a fund for the relief of the down trodden miners of Pennsylvania, whom the capitalists in their selfishness wish to further enslave.

There is but 49 feet difference in the elevation of Lancaster and Mt. Vernon, the former lying 1,065 and the latter 1,113 feet above sea level. One town hill is 400 feet further towards the clouds. Linville Krab, near Conway, shows up with 1,575 feet.

The coal situation in Southeastern Kentucky is being effected by the Pennsylvania strike. The price of coal has advanced 33 per cent, and with prospects of going higher and most of the operators have more orders than they can fill and are accepting no new orders.

The trustees have had the college adorned with a fresh coat of paint which adds to its appearance. If extra coats make things warm, it will be comfortably warm this winter.

Mrs. M. E. Fish has sold her personal property and she and her daughter, Miss Allie Fish, will visit in Knoxville a short while before going to California to spend the winter. Dr. J. S. Stapp and wife have returned to this city from Campbellburg, where they spent the summer with their daughter. Mrs. Jeff Holman is sick with malarial fever. Robert Riddle, who was also ill, is convalescent.

HON. J. WILLARD MITCHELL, who will speak at the Court-house here Monday in place of Hon. Geo. G. Gilbert, who cannot come

This is what his home paper, the Jessamine Journal, says about Mr. Mitchell: "Few young men in the state have attained the political prominence of J. Willard Mitchell, who is an announced candidate for the democratic nomination for Attorney General of Kentucky. Since he attained his majority he has taken an active interest in politics, attending the conventions of his party, and has ever been foremost in the political affairs of his county and State. Mr. Mitchell was nominated and elected county attorney of Jessamine county in 1898, and in 1901 was again chosen for the same office. As a democrat he has always been found at his post of duty, advocating what he thought was the best interests of his party and the people in general. In 1899 and 1900 his services were constantly in demand by the State democratic campaign committee and he never once failed to respond to his party's call. He is a good lawyer, an able prosecutor, and would make an admirable Attorney General."

HUSTONVILLE.

Mr. Jesse Rout suffered a painful accident while unloading some machinery. Two of his fingers were badly mashed. Jess outlasted most clerks, if one hand is in a sling.

Miss Minnie Dinwiddie has returned from Oklahoma. Billy Dinwiddie spent Sunday in Bradfordsville. A number of our young people attended the football game in Danville Saturday last.

W. S. Drye is in Lexington with three nice Eastern horses, hoping to sell them at fancy prices. It is more than probable that he will locate and be with Mode Nichols. Success to you, Doc.

Friends here are sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mr. G. F. Peacock.

Mr. Bob Williams' attractive house on the Liberty road is nearing completion. We suggest they call it "Highland Heights."

A fishing party consisting of J. P. Goode, W. L. Evans, J. G. Weatherford, Jerry Adams, Owen Williams, Roy Rose and Val Morse left Tuesday for Dunnville. A party of this size would make Izak Walton, were he living, ashamed of himself.

Jas. W. Allen sold to Harrodsburg parties 30 cattle, realizing a good profit.

D. C. Allen and L. M. Reid are in Russell county buying stock. Bob Williams bought of Warren Lamb 12 steers at 5c. J. K. Baughman purchased of George Cunningham a bunch of nice mule colts.

Arthur Jones, our new sexton, has taken charge of the cemetery. It is to be hoped more time and attention will be given. It has been sadly neglected, causing much dissatisfaction in the whole community. Indeed, for some time it has been a veritable wilderness, wherein it could be made beautiful. Their aim should be to beautify—simply this and nothing more.

Mrs. William Dodd attended the Confederate "unveiling" at Perryville. His presence will bring to memory his thrilling experience there 40 years ago. Mr. John Drye left Monday for Springfield to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Richard Bradley.

We are sorry to say Mr. D. C. Allen is sick at the home of his son, D. C. Allen. Mrs. Nannie Harper and Mrs. Lud Evans have also been on the sick list.

Rev. J. W. Mills will attend the national convention at Omaha, Neb. Mrs. John Allen and children are visiting her sister in Washington city

E. C. WALTON.

H. H. HENNINGER

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ROBERT HARDING, of Danville, is a candidate for Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

CHARLES A. HARDIN, of Mercer, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 13th judicial district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

For Congress,

G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby.

HON. JOHN K. HENDRICK, of Paducah, opened his campaign for governor at Hopkinsville Monday. He assailed the eligibility of Gov. Beckham to reelection, and read a lengthy opinion signed by a number of Western Kentucky lawyers, coinciding in his construction of the Constitution. He discussed National issues to some extent, advocating State legislation against trusts and for the arbitration of labor troubles, and came out strongly in opposition to a democratic State primary, declaring that there was no authority under the party law for the calling of a State primary.

THE Danville Advocate's last issue was a daisy. It might well be called the unveling edition, and a credit to it and the paper it was. It contained Judge Saufley's magnificent speech, a picture of that distinguished gentleman, as well as pictures of the monument and the ladies who unveiled it, a description and history of the monument and a write-up of the unveling exercises. We congratulate Brers, McIntyre and Ralston on their splendid effort.

THE annual meeting of the Kentucky division of the United Confederate Veteran Association will be held in Louisville, Oct 23 and 24. The "Home" at Pewee Valley will be dedicated on Oct 23, and the members of the State reunion will take a leading part in that event. The establishment of a home for the needy heroes who wore the gray has been long deferred, but the consummation devoutly desired for a long time is soon to be realized.

LEADING Negroes of North Carolina have issued a call for a Negro State convention to meet in Raleigh Oct. 18 to nominate a State ticket and Congressmen in each district. The Negroes will have the pleasure of attending the convention and running for office, but the fun will stop there. The white republicans won't vote for them and if they would they would not have enough strength to win anything.

NORTHWARD the new and rigid divorce laws of Rhode Island there were 40 divorce cases on the docket of the appellate court in Newport on Monday, one lawyer having 19 cases. The marriage-a-failure idea may spread over the whole State.

THE strike in the Anthracite section continues, although there are rumors that a settlement will be made. President Mitchell declined President Roosevelt's proposition in the matter.

THE circular letter sent out by John G. White, republican nominee for Congress in the Tenth district, stamps him a worse gum shoe statesman than old Gun Show Hunter.

KEEP the race of Hon. Geo. G. Gilbert for Congress in your mind. The election is now less than a month off. It is time you were doing something for democracy's cause.

THE Lexington Democrat opens a subscription for the striking miners and it is hoped that a good sum will be realized for the worthy cause.

POLITICAL.

Over 2,000 people heard Senator Jas. B. McCreary's magnificent speech at Burlington Monday.

Lexington's registration shows a total of 3,267 democrats, 1,395 republicans and 206 independents.

The registration at Richmond resulted in a plurality of 94 for the democrats over republicans and 76 majority over all.

The democratic nomination for Commonwealth's attorney in the Tenth district goes to D. J. Wood by a small margin. He has served two terms.

Capt. Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution and a fine gentleman in every way, has been nominated for mayor by the democrats of the Gate City of the South.

President Roosevelt has appointed Thomas R. Roulard district attorney for Alabama, to succeed W. R. Vaughn, recently removed. The appointee is a democrat, and his selection is regarded with ill favor by the "Lily White" republicans of Alabama.

In private conversation with Hon. James D. Black he told us he was a candidate for governor of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic party. He will make an active canvas of the State and believes he will be a winner.—Mountain Democrat, London.

Gov. and Mrs. Beckham are attending the horse show at Nashville.

William R. Hearst, in accepting the democratic nomination for Congress in the New York district, spoke in favor of public ownership of certain public utilities—beginning with railroads and telegraphs. He advocated the government's managing the coal mines for the benefit of the people.

The campaign for the democratic gubernatorial nomination may now be regarded as formally opened. Draw a line from Paducah through Bardstown and Danville to Barbourville, and you will have the four probable candidates—Hendrick, Beckham, Breckinridge and Black—strung out pretty nearly straight, and one each in the four great divisions of the State—the Purchase, the Pennyrile, the Bluegrass, and the Mountains. And they are all, too, good men and true.—Louisville Times.

There will be a meeting of the county officers and the executive committee of the Garrard Sunday school organization at the Presbyterian church tomorrow afternoon.

The Sunday school at Pleasant Hill, two miles west of town, has closed for the winter season. This organization was very successful with H. A. B Marksby as superintendent, W. M. Popo secretary and Miss Ella Ball as organist.

The second meeting of the teachers of Garrard in the Magisterial District Association will be held at Cartersville Saturday, Oct 19. The exercises will be conducted in Carter's chapel and a sumptuous dinner will be served the assembly.

H. M. Ballou has on display at his store the finest lot of Haverland China ever brought to this city, having recently received over $300 worth in one consignment.

He lately sold to the prosperous young householder, Mr. J. W. Sweeney, one of his finest Haverland sets at $75.

Invitations have been received by friends and relatives here at her late home to the marriage of Miss Jessie Arnold, of St. Louis, and Mr. S. A. McDearmon, of Chicago, Ill. The ceremony will be pronounced next Tuesday afternoon at 4 P. M., at the residence of her sister in St. Louis.

J. C. Thompson and T. P. Frisbie have both launched out upon a new industry for this section and hope to make it very extensive and exceedingly lucrative. They have made large orders from the ginseng farms of both Rockcastle and Pulaski counties, each purchasing several thousand plants and a large lot of seed at 2c apiece. They expect to realize some profit and make sales by next fall. Mr. Thompson has been in correspondence with and is a relative of the Missouri grower who made $25,000 profit off of a half acre in one season.

Frank Buettner, the Cleveland contractor who submitted to having his esophagus split to get his false teeth, which he mistakenly thought he had swallowed, died of his injuries.

Luther Maloney, of Louisville, shot his wife as she lay asleep with two tender babes at her side and then fled. The infants, stained with their mother's blood, were found in peaceful slumber.

The great Transylvania race at Lexington yesterday was won by Ozanam, with the Prince of Orange second and Major Delmar third. Best time, 2:07, which was made by Prince of Orange. The great blind horse, Rhythmic, driven by Hudson, was drawn in the first heat.

UNVEILING AT PERRYVILLE—The crowd that attended the unveiling of the monument to the Confederate dead at Perryville Wednesday is estimated all the way from $8,000 to $18,000. The program was carried out without a hitch and the day was one that will long be remembered. The good people of the West End of Boyle threw open their doors to their visitors and did all in their power to make the brief stay in their midst enjoyable, and right well they succeeded. Abundant dinner was free to all and there was almost enough left over for another meal. The exercises began at 11 o'clock with prayer by Rev. B. F. Adkins, after which Judge R. J. Breckinridge welcomed the immense throng and gave a brief history of the monument. Miss Ella Hay, assisted by Miss Annie Tribble, unveiled the handsome shaft amid deafening applause. Judge M. C. Saufley, of this place, spoke for an hour and his effort is said to have been a most excellent one. He gave a brief summary of the Perryville battle and other incidents of the war, and his speech all through was as interesting as it was well delivered and received. Gen. A. J. West, of Atlanta, entertained the crowd with an excellent talk. He is a gallant old ex-Confederate, a fine Southern gentleman and an orator of considerable note. The children of the Perryville public school sang an appropriate song or two, and the exercises were concluded by a prayer of benediction by Rev. E. M. Green. The exercises over, the vast throng spent a short while saying good-bye and then went home feeling that the day had been a most enjoyable one and one that would not soon be forgotten.

The monument is a handsome granite shaft about 30 feet high and is capped with the figure of a Confederate soldier standing at "parade rest." The site is a high hill and the shaft can be seen for several miles.

The Advocate gives this interesting bit of history in connection with the erection of the monument, which shows that the happy thought was suggested by Lincoln county gentlemen:

The plan for the erection of a monument to the Confederate dead at Perryville originated in January, 1898, when Hon. M. C. Saufley, Hon. R. J. Breckinridge and Col. Wm. G. Welch met by chance in the Gilcher Hotel, of this city. The conversation was brought to the subject of the neglected condition of the graveyard at Perryville, and means to remedy matters were discussed. The three gentlemen agreed to use their efforts to devise a plan. Accordingly, Representative North, of Lincoln, at the next session of the Legislature, introduced a bill to appropriate $500 to care for the grounds. In the same bill, Messrs. James Baughman and R. J. Breckinridge, Confederate veterans, and Capt. Boyle O'Rodes and S. D. VanPelt, Federal veterans, were specified as commissioners. This bill passed, but the sum was inadequate for any great improvement. At the last session of the legislature Hon. T. P. Reed, of Boyle, introduced a bill appropriating $2,000 for the same purpose, which was passed without difficulty. The commissioners then contracted with the Peter Burghart Stone Co., of Louisville, to erect the monument and build a stone wall around the premises, for the sum of $2,500. By private subscription a sufficient sum was raised to purchase the graveyard from Henry Bottom, upon whose farm the land lies. It was thereafter deeded to the State of Kentucky, and now belongs to the Commonwealth, with the shaft upon it.

BAUGH DENIES—Kindly give me space to deny the charge of poisoning Green Acton's horse. This is a grave charge and I positively deny it. It is true that the hounds trailed to my house, but why, it is impossible for me to say, as a large portion of the course the dogs took, I have not put my foot on in years. I had nothing personally against Mr. Acton and no reason or wish to injure him or his property. I have no feeling against the officers who were endeavoring to do their duty and am sorry they failed to find the guilty parties. But I defy my accusers to prove their charge, and since the matter has gone so far I am more anxious to meet any issue in court so I can have a chance to establish my innocence, which I am ready and able to do. George Baugh.

BELL COUNTY MINERS are sending the Pennsylvania strikers about $600 a month.
